

Karimabad to Rakaposhi Base Camp Trek

📍 Karimabad, Karimabad

Embark on an unforgettable 2-day Rakaposhi Base Camp Trek—an ideal adventure for trekkers of all levels seeking dramatic mountain scenery in a short time. Starting from Minapin village in the scenic Nagar Valley, this trek offers direct access to the towering Rakaposhi (7,788m), one of the most stunning peaks of the Karakoram range.

Your journey begins with a scenic walk to Hapakun, a lush alpine meadow surrounded by pine forests and a nearby waterfall. On Day 2, the adventure continues to Tagha Phari (Rakaposhi Base Camp), where you'll witness sweeping views of Rakaposhi, Diran Peak, and glacial terrain.

Perfect for nature lovers, families, and first-time trekkers, this experience is both accessible and rewarding. Whether you choose to relax in the campsites or push further to panoramic viewpoints, the Rakaposhi Base Camp Trek will leave you with breathtaking memories.

Tour Facts

Group Size:

15

Duration:

2

Language:

English

Tour Type:

continuous

Tour Itinerary

Day 1 : Trek to Hapakun Camp

After a one-hour drive from Hunza to Minapin, begin your scenic hike through pine-scented trails and vibrant meadows. Enjoy rest stops with light refreshments as you ascend to the Hapakun campsite (2,950m), known for its grassy plains and waterfall backdrop. Settle in for a cozy night under canvas, complete with dinner and bonfire.

Day 2 : Rakaposhi Base Camp and Return

Rise early and trek to Tagha Phari (Rakaposhi Base Camp), ascending 500 meters along forest ridges with awe-inspiring views. Enjoy some time at the glacier edge with up-close views of Rakaposhi and Diran Peak. Adventurous trekkers may ascend further to 3,800m. After lunch, descend back to Minapin and transfer to your hotel in Hunza.